

Education

Jobs in the Military

Do you like...

- working with kids?
- teaching a class?
- seeing someone grow?
- helping others?

Training Specialists and Instructors

teach classes and give demonstrations to provide military personnel with the knowledge needed to perform their jobs.

Teachers and Instructors conduct classes in such academic subjects as engineering, physical science, social science, and nursing.

Training and Education Directors plan, develop, and manage education and training programs for military personnel.

Possible Career Paths

Career/Technical Education Teachers Teach occupational, career and technical, or vocational subjects at the secondary school level in public or private schools.

Special Education Teachers Teach school subjects to educationally and physically handicapped students.

Kindergarten Teachers Teach elemental natural and social science, personal hygiene, music, art, and literature to kindergarten students. Promote physical, mental, and social development.

Elementary School Teachers Teach students basic academic, social, and other formative skills in public or private schools at the elementary level.

Middle School Teachers Teach students in one or more subjects in public or private schools at the middle, intermediate, or junior high level, which falls between elementary and senior high school.

Secondary School Teachers Teach students in one or more subjects, such as English, mathematics, or social studies at the secondary level in public or private schools.

Education Administrators Plan, direct, or coordinate research, instructional, student administration and services, and other educational activities.

Colleges for Education

Baylor University, Harding University, Missouri Southern State University, Missouri State University, Ouachita Baptist University, Saint Louis University, University of Arkansas, University of Arkansas Little Rock, University of Central Missouri, University of Oklahoma, University of the Ozarks, Webster University, Williams Baptist University

